

Court of Quarter Sessions [at] Adolphustown, July 11, 1809

Present: Richard Cartwright, Esq., chairman, Bryan Crawford, Hazleton Spencer, John Embury, Stephen Conger, Reuben Bedal, Cornelius Vanalstine, Jacob B. Chamberlain, Andrew Kimmerly, E. Washburn.

The Commission of the Peace was openly read. The Grand Jury called and sworn were: Cyrenus Park, foreman, Peter Rattan, Cornelius Vanhorn, Abraham Mabee, James Caniff, Philip Flagler, Ryle Dorland, John Clapp, Eliphabet Adams, Nicholas Wessels, Henry Johnston, John Trumpour, Owen Roblin, Benjamin Clapp, Nicholas Peterson, Peter Van Scriver, Samuel Dorland.

All persons were called upon their recognizance and appeared.

CASE	The King on the prosecution of John Nugent vs. Micajah Purdy, Elias Dulmage, George Embury, William Guess and Solomon Joiner
CHARGE	a riot
JURY	Joseph Allison, foreman, John Holliday, James Ackerman, Henry Davis, Isaac Cole, Abraham Bogart, Augustus Shorts, Solomon Huff, Tobias Mabee, Henry Loyst, Albert Benson, George Bloom
PLEA	not guilty
VERDICT	The jury withdrew to consider of their verdict and, having returned into court, say Micajah Purdy, Elias Dulmage and George Embury are guilty, William Guess is not guilty.

It appearing to the Sessions that Solomon Joiner being sick and unable to attend, he is continued on his recognizance until October Sessions next. Micajah Purdy is bound in the sum of ten pounds for the appearance of Salmon Joiner at the Quarter Sessions in October next.

The Quarter Sessions adjourned until tomorrow morning at nine o'clock.

[July 12, 1809 at Adolphustown]

The Quarter Sessions met at nine o'clock Wednesday morning, pursuant to adjournment. Present: Alexander Fisher, Esq., Bryan Crawford, Andrew Kimmerly, Reuben Bedal, Jacob B. Chamberlain, Daniel Wright, John Embury, Cornelius Vanalstine.

The Grand Jury came into court and presented a bill of indictment against Conrad Vandusen. Also a bill of indictment against Caleb Raymond.

The Sessions respite the recognizance of Conrad Vandusen, Samuel Rowe and Henry Thorpe until next January Sessions.